Fair price shops allotted to the educated rural unemployed persons

2292. SHRI VITHALRAO MADHAVRAO JADHAV:
SHRI SURENDER SINGH:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) the number of fair price shops given to educated unemployed persons in rural areas of the country;

(b) what is the percentage of fair price shops allotted to SC/ST candidates; and

(c) what is the overall performance of functioning of fair price shops?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF CIVIL SUPPLIES AND PUBLIC DISTRIBUTION (SHRI KAMALUDDIN AHMED): (a) to (c) The implementation of Public Distribution System (PDS) is done by the State Governments/UT Administrations. Decisions regarding opening and setting of criteria for licensing of fair price shops (FPS) etc. are taken by the State Governments as part of their administration of the PDS. The Central Government had requested the State Governments/U.T. Administrations to consider fixing of quota for issue of licences for running fair price shops under the PDS to people belonging to Scheduled Caste|Scheduled Tribes Different State Government have different practices and procedures for allotment of fair price shops in their jurisdiction. The performance of fair price shops are monitored by State Governments /UT Administrations, which have the necessary authority to take action against any FPS licence for violation of licensing provisions.
